INTRODUCTION

Priest: + In the Name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

Priest: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

All: Who made heaven and earth.

Priest: The eyes of all look hopefully to you, O Lord;

All: And you give them their food in due season.

Priest: You open your hand,

All: And satisfy the desire of every living thing. (Cf. Ps. 145: 15-16)

Priest: The Holy Spirit has brought us here to seek the intercession of our Mother Mary in these times of trial, especially the grave financial hardships that cause such pressing anxiety among so many.

Let us begin by recalling the Gospels' witness to the role of the Mother of God in his plan to deliver us and to the place of her prayer in our lives:

- In accepting God's message through the Archangel Gabriel at Nazareth, Mary, the Virgin Daughter of Zion, became for all time the instrument through which the Father gives us his own Divine Son, with all the riches of his graces and favors. (Cf. Lk. 1: 26-38)
- In directing the wedding party at the marriage feast in Cana to do whatever Jesus told them, Our Lady instructs us to look the Lord with unconditional trust, sure in the hope that He will deliver us from all our distress. (Cf. Jn. 2: 1-12)
- In entrusting his Mother to the Beloved Disciple from his cross on Calvary, the Lord Jesus has given us for all ages thereafter his Mother to be our Mother, too. All of us disciples recognize her henceforth as our Mother; and she recognizes us as her beloved sons and daughters. (Cf. Jn. 19: 25-27)

- In her novena of prayers with the Apostles and the other disciples in the Upper Room between the Ascension and Pentecost, the Ever-Virgin Mary, the Immaculate Mother of God and our Blessed Mother, solemnly began that ardent, unwavering and perpetual prayer which she has never ceased to offer to obtain God's help for us. (Cf. 1 Acts 1: 13-14)

So, with our hearts and minds formed by God's inspired word, let us with full confidence seek the help and support of the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Our Mother of Perpetual Help.

Comforter of the Afflicted, beg your Son Jesus to strengthen us as we bear our burdens and to free us from our sufferings.
