At Blessed Sacrament Cathedral on December 3 World AIDS Day Candlelight Memorial Service

The Archdiocese of Detroit will mark World AIDS Day with a Candlelight Memorial Service to be held at 4 p.m. on Sunday, December 3, at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, 9844 Woodward Avenue, Detroit.

People with HIV/AIDS, their caregivers, loved ones, and all who are touched by this disease are invited to gather in prayer for this annual service to be conducted by Michael Hovey, director of Catholic Social Teaching for the Archdiocese of Detroit.

“Stop AIDS: Keep the Promise” is the theme of the service. It will include a presentation of the Names Project Quilt, a reading of names of those who have died of AIDS (there will be an opportunity to add names to the list), scripture readings, and a reflection by Christopher Rennie of the AIDS Ministry Forum of the Archdiocese of Detroit.

Approximately 200 people are expected to participate in the service. Those attending will receive individualized candles and red AIDS ribbons. For additional information, contact Michael Harning at 313-319-5180.
