At Blessed Sacrament Cathedral

RE: Cardinal Maida to Celebrate Holy Week and Easter Liturgies

As the Lenten season draws to a close, Cardinal Adam Maida, archbishop of Detroit, will celebrate the liturgies of Holy Week and Easter at Detroit's Blessed Sacrament Cathedral. The public is invited to participate. Blessed Sacrament Cathedral is located at 9844 Woodward Avenue, between Grand Boulevard and Davison.

On Passion (Palm) Sunday, April 1, at 10 a.m., Cardinal Maida will bless palms and celebrate Mass. This liturgy recalls the triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem at the beginning of His week of Passion.

On Holy Thursday, April 5, at 11 a.m., Cardinal Maida will celebrate the Chrism Mass. At this Mass, the cardinal will consecrate the Chrism and bless the Oil of the Sick and the Oil of the Catechumens. Chrism is used in baptism, confirmation and ordination. During this Mass, the priests of the Archdiocese of Detroit will make a public renewal of their commitment to priestly service.

On Holy Thursday, April 5, at 7 p.m., Cardinal Maida will celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper. During this Mass, Cardinal Maida will wash the feet of twelve parishioners. This washing commemorates Christ washing the feet of His twelve apostles at the Last Supper.

On Good Friday, April 6, at 1 p.m., Cardinal Maida will begin the celebration of the Lord's Passion. This service will include prayers, the proclamation of the Passion, veneration of the cross, and Holy Communion.

On Holy Saturday, April 7, at 8 p.m., Cardinal Maida will preside at the Easter Vigil. These rites include the Blessing of the Fire, a ceremony in which the Paschal Candle is lit from a small fire in the darkened church. At the Easter Vigil, those who have completed their preparation will be baptized and/or received into full communion with the Church through their Confirmation and First Eucharist.

On Easter Sunday, April 8, at 10 a.m., Cardinal Maida will be the celebrant and homilist at Mass. This liturgy celebrates the resurrection of the Lord Jesus from the dead.
